

Courses for First-Aid Training – UPDATE

The following chart is an update to the Courses for First-Aid Training section of Safety-Wise. Please share with your council staff and membership.

National first-aid programs may be submitted for review through out the year. Girl Scouts of the USA routinely reviews such programs so as to expand the courses available to our membership.

For more information regarding what level of training is needed for different activities, and when it is needed, please consult Safety-Wise.
